

Project Leadership Associates Wins Prestigious Pentaho Global Partner Award

Business Intelligence Leader Recognizes Open Source Winners at 2011 Global Partner Summit

Chicago, IL – February 1, 2011 - Pentaho Corporation, the open source business intelligence (BI) and data integration leader, recently announced that Project Leadership Associates (PLA) is a recipient of the 2011 Pentaho Global Partner Award in the category of SI Partner of the Year.

The Pentaho Global Partner Award recognizes organizations that have worked closely with Pentaho throughout the year to deliver outstanding customer success, technical innovation and commercial results. Project Leadership Associates was presented the award at the Pentaho Global Partner Summit in San Francisco, California.

“PLA is very proud to be recognized for its outstanding work as one of Pentaho’s key system integrator partners. We continue to see organizations of all sizes and across many industries reap the benefits of Pentaho’s comprehensive BI suite in a very cost-effective subscription model. We look forward to deepening our partnership even further with innovations such as our hosted offering that PLA and Pentaho jointly brought to market,” said Andy Grohe, Partner and Technology Specialist at Project Leadership Associates.

“Project Leadership Associates is a great example of a Pentaho partner rising above and is a well-deserved winner of the SI of the Year category for the Pentaho 2011 Global Partner Award,” said Richard Baldwin, vice president of worldwide channels at Pentaho Corporation. “Over the past year, Project Leadership Associates has exemplified a strong willingness to go above and beyond. From assuming a leadership role at many of our Data-to-Dashboard events across the country, to having been instrumental to the success of our new Pentaho 72-Hour Challenge offering, PLA has been an overall outstanding partner to work with.”
