

Project Leadership Associates Boosts Investment in its Business and Technology Consulting Services for the Legal Market

Chicago, IL, July 11, 2011 - Project Leadership Associates, Inc. (PLA) recently announced that it has secured outside investment and continues to internally fund its legal consulting services. In recent years, PLA has grown to become the largest provider of business and technology consulting solutions focused on the U.S. legal market. PLA provides consulting services to the global legal industry through its work with over 450 law firms and corporate legal departments.

"Project Leadership Associates continues to show its stamina and unwavering focus in serving the legal industry with outstanding delivery," said Dan Porcaro, President and CEO of Project Leadership Associates. "While the legal consulting space continues to mature, PLA continues to grow by providing solutions centered on greater process efficiency, lowering costs and enhanced performance by integrating cutting-edge business and technology solutions that support strategic operations."

PLA's full spectrum of consulting services offers span strategy execution, operational guidance, software application and infrastructure design and delivery.

"We have added over 100 strategic law firm and corporate legal clients in the last two years and we are extremely pleased that our success has led to wider industry recognition and further investment", commented Dan Safran, Executive Vice President, Legal Solutions of Project Leadership Associates. "As our competitors divest strategic portions of their business, we have a solid growth outlook and plan to serve the legal market for years to come."
